

Ken Technologies is a well booming outsourcing firm in India which through its strong enormous growth suggests likely continuation. Business processes operations of our organization are basically carried out in different parts of the world. Those are: Florida, which is situated in USA and Kerala, South INDIA. Good domain knowledge, process know-how, and competence with technological solutions to cater to the complex and urgent requirements of a wide variety of customers around the world make us the leader in the BPO outsourcing services industry in India.

Our Clientele:

Our mission is to develop and maintain better, strong, long lasting client relationships through outsourcing IT services. We also strive to attract more and more potential clients so as to benefit both parties. Over the years we have successfully provided BPO and KPO outsourcing services to a wide range of customers irrespective of their size, status, service sector, or location. We believe in, and put into action the philosophy of ensuring customer satisfaction. Our clientele base that benefits from outsourcing services consists a wide variety of industries and it range from professionals to retailers, and manufacturers to service providers.

Here is a cross section of a few IT-enabled outsourcing services that we provide:

By utilizing our Image Scanning and Indexing outsourcing IT services, you can unshackle your company from the hassles and disadvantages of maintaining all your business documents in hard copies. IT outsourcing services.com provides high quality scanning and indexing services in accordance with the industry standards for any format of document, and image.

We offer outsourcing services of Data conversion by which we will convert your unstructured data into a variety of useful digital formats.

We provide quick and accurate data entry outsourcing IT services for any business that needs data to be extracted from any source.

Advantages of Outsourcing Services:

Availing the benefits of our outsourcing IT services can make a lot of difference in the performance standards of your business, whether small or big.

IT Outsourcing helps you to increase the rhythm of your business activities in a rapid pace, save time, save money and gives you many other competitive advantages.

Leveraging KEN TECHNOLOGIES transition experience: KEN TECHNOLOGIES BPO has customized its proven knowledge transition processes/quality methodology to transition work from offshore locations in US/Europe to its delivery centers ensuring risk mitigated, quick and cost effective transitions.

Integrated service provider: KEN TECHNOLOGIES BPO is one of the leading vendors providing Operations, Technology & Infrastructure integrated services. These integrated services provide immense intangible benefits like reduced process duration, higher appreciation of business criticality, micro level operational details etc.

End-to-End service capability: With over 170 processes running, KEN TECHNOLOGIES BPO has in-depth experience and knowledge in addressing the existing and emerging outsourcing requirements of Clients from varied industry segments.

Continuous investment in Technology: DS3 network, Platforms and call centre specific tools. KEN TECHNOLOGIES BPO's IT focus being Server consolidation, application consolidation and Compliance.